

February 2010 Update

Leanne Tschanz

FOKS Chicken Dinner

The chicken noodle dinner has been rescheduled for February 16.

Spelling Bee

The grade school spelling bee was held on Wednesday, January 27 in the grade school gym.

Mrs. Glenn's sixth grade homeroom was represented by Valerie Caro, Clayton Gardiner, and Rubi Valdez. Jacob Apsley, Natividad Salazar, and Blake Thorne represented Mr. Taton's sixth grade classroom. Spellers from Mrs. Howie's fifth grade homeroom were Sadie Barajas, Cameron Good, and Monet Howe. Lizeth Duran, Eduardo Miramontes, and Amberley Taylor represented Mr. Ploger's fifth grade. Spellers from Mrs. Woolfolk's fourth grade classroom were Alejandro Carrette, Alex Howie, and Gillian Rios. Miss Patton's fourth grade room was represented by Javier Ledezma, Jaxon Rios, and Terek Smith.

First Place went to Javier Ledezma. Second place was Blake Throne. Third place was Alejandro Carrette. These three spellers will represent Satanta Grade School at the Haskell County Spelling Bee on Feb. 17. If any of the top three spellers are unable to attend, Monet Howe- will be the alternate.

BP Fabric for America

The grade school has received two donations from BP employees. The donations are being used to purchase materials for our MTSS implementation.

Literacy Night

Due to bad weather our Literacy Night for January 28 was postponed.
